Brief Description of Tours

- Sample Seattle — Deluxe City Tour See the historic waterfront of Seattle: Pike Place Market, art galleries, Pioneer Square, The International District. Pass through the Arboretum and the University of Washington. Watch wild salmon returning from the sea as they climb the fish ladder at the Hiram Chittendon Locks.
- Boeing Plant Tour Visit the final assembly of enormous aircraft built by Boeing, pioneers of the Age of Flight. [Children must be over 50 inches (125 cm) in height to participate.]
- Wine Tasting Tour Sample the wines of world-class wineries of Washington State, with spectacular views of the Cascade Mountain. The vines of Washington state grow at the same latitude as the finest vineyards of Europe, with delicious results!
- Country Sampler Visit boutiques in historic Northwest buildings in the foothills of the Cascades; see the spectacular Snoqualmie Falls, higher than Niagara! Conclude your trip with a visit to the famous Chateau Ste. Michelle winery.
- Northwest Houseboat Tour Spend a morning on a yacht, seeing the thriving community of floating homes on Lake Union. From the simple to the elaborate, you'll also glimpse the houseboat occupied by Tom Hanks for the film "Sleepless in Seattle."
- Spirit of Puget Sound Dinner Cruise Fabulous food and drink! Two bands! Live shows! Dancing! Take an elegant trip aboard a luxury yacht providing succulent dining, spectacular views through panoramic windows, entertained by talented dining staff.
- Mount Rainier Day Tour Standing 14,411 feet (4392 m) above sea level, the icy volcano towers above the Cascades and Puget Sound. You'll have comfortable trip to Paradise Lodge at 5000 feet (1524 m) with views across alpine meadows to the glaciers and precipices.
- Microbrewery Tour The Pacific Northwest is famous for its many microbreweries and craft beers. You'll see the Red Hook Ale Brewery and the Rock Bottom Brewery, with opportunity to see other brewpubs in downtown Seattle!
- Victoria BC Day Trip A melting pot of European, Asian, and Native American Cultures! You'll travel on the fastest jet catamaran passenger ferry in North America, and arrive at Victoria's Inner Harber, giving to the Royal London Wax Museam Crystal Garden with views of the splendid Empress Hotel and Parliament Building. In the afternoon, choose a stroll the the Butchart Gardens or consider High Tea at the Empress.
- Tillicum Village Salmon Dinner Cruise A short cruise to Blake Island takes you the Puget Sound of the Past, with Northwest Native American architecture and are. The traditional feast begins with steamed clams and proceeds sot an all-you-can-eat buffet. As the dinner ends, a narrator tells stories of the land and customs assisted by authentically customed dancers. Northwest feast begins
